

Welcome to the 2020 Performance Season! This is the 51st year and our theme for our students is “What’s your 20/20 vision for yourself this year!” We have an exciting dance and performance season planned for you; it promises to be a “Reel” great time! The GD&PAA website will have information covering the season including scheduled classes, calendar, policy and procedure, class attire and special events. We invite you to like us on Facebook and Instagram and share our posts with your family and friends as well. As always, if you have any questions or need more information, you can call the office: 860-872-1498 or email us at info@grossidance.com.

We request that you look for communications for the season as posted in the studio, on the website and on Facebook as the year progresses. Tuition and payment information is listed in the GD&PAA registration form and classes resume Monday, September 16th, 2019.

You will be receiving information about your participation in our annual Showcase held in June by February 2020. We welcome your comments and suggestions regarding any of our policies or procedures at any time.

Please note that the waiting rooms are made available for the convenience of our students and their families. We ask that you please respect the activities of others and the classes in session.

Please - only water or tightly covered drinks and dry Non-Peanut snacks can be allowed. Please take out any containers that you bring into the studios, reception and waiting areas. Students: please arrive at the studio with adequate time to prepare for class, parking, changing, restroom, etc. Parents & sponsors: for your children’s safety, please be available in the parking lot or waiting room to receive students when dismissed from class. Please call whenever delayed for class start time or pickup, or in advance of an absence from class.

If any parent/student wishes a private conference concerning individual dance goals or concerns, please do not hesitate to ask. We are happy to work with you to ensure that your dance and performance year will be one of pleasure and growth. The entire faculty and GD&PAA staff wishes you a fantastic performing arts season!
