

GROSSI DANCE & PERFORMING ARTS ACADEMY

Some NEWS for YOU!

WHERE IN THE WORLD WILL GROSSI DANCE & PERFORMING ARTS TAKE YOU?

IN THIS ISSUE

Hello, GD&PAA families and friends!

A favorite quote of mine is, “Gratitude is the memory of the heart.” While we have been isolated in many ways from each other, you, our GD&PAA family have reached out to us in so many ways. Your many positive texts, affirming emails and cards, supportive posts on social media, attending zoom and ‘in-person-parking-lot classes,’ paying tuition and generous donations to the scholarship fund, have helped our staff and me in more ways than words can express through these challenging months. For all those efforts and your on-going dedication, encouragement and commitment to our staff and mission, our hearts are truly full.

More than ever, I am thankful for my devoted staff. Their loyalty, caring, shouldering, and sharing of the studio business, efforts to reach out to every student, providing the best classes possible and their incredible professionalism grew with each passing week and truly helped me through this surreal time. You are exceptional and loved!

We all look forward to the day when you can come into the studios, and we can all (safely!) watch out for leaping dancers flying by our heads and hear the voices of our musical theatre students!

Please keep your eyes out for ‘Diane’s Return-to-Studio’ emails, and please follow, like and share our Instagram and Facebook posts. They will be full of studio-related information about Fall registrations and schedules for the 2020-2021 season, safety guidelines per the CDC and CT State Dept. of Education, showcase and dress rehearsal updates, fundraisers, showcase volunteers, spirit wear, class attire and more!

Even with our delayed showcase, the staff and I continue to encourage our students to let their souls smile through their hearts and their hearts smile through their eyes, that they may share hope to many... and again, we thank you for keeping and rekindling our spark, sparkle & shine!

Ms. Linda & Staff
